INTRODUCTION

Here we are. Another holiday season, another wave of the pandemic. On one hand, many Americans are lining up to get their booster, which is now available to all adults who wish to get it. On the other, another variant is stirring and, despite early news reports that indicate it may be milder, consumers are stressed.

How will this impact their year-end and holiday plans? And how will that impact your marketing? The answer: you need the freshest data that’s easily actionable to strategize based on the granular and sweeping shifts happening from day-to-day. You need industry-specific data and real-time data on shifting consumer perceptions. Your success hinges on adjusting your marketing efforts to evolve with your customers and using real-time data to draw insights that inform your acquisition, upsell, and retention strategies — meeting consumers where they are right now.

The Resonate Ignite Platform™ provides immediate access to the latest data on the behaviors, values, and preferences driving your customers’ decisions. Use Resonate’s platform to unify and enrich your first-party data with Resonate’s privacy-safe data to drive better decisions that capitalize on the evolving market dynamics.

This report contains highlights on latest research brands and agencies need to inform marketing, CX, product development, creative, messaging, and more. To access the full insights released in December 2021, contact us and we’ll set you up with a data specialist who can explain the report within the Ignite Platform™ and how it applies to your own audience.

The latest variant could be driving a slight increase in those who only plan on gathering with immediate family this holiday season. But how has it affected their day-to-day interactions? One of our expert data specialists can show you.
Compared to what you were doing before the coronavirus situation, how would you say your spending habits have changed?

One in 5 Americans is now spending more than they were pre-pandemic. Great news, right? Possibly, but you’ll also want to take a look at the data points on saving, personal financial outlook, and financial habits.

A Resonate data specialist can walk you through the latest insights available within the platform and show you how this data compares to your audience.
Compared to 12 months ago, how has your loyalty towards your preferred brands changed?

- 59.5%: I am still loyal to the brands I was loyal to 12 months ago.
- 16.0%: There are some brands that I was loyal to 12 months ago, but I have switched to a different brand since.
- 5.1%: There are some brands that I was loyal to 12 months ago, but I no longer consider myself loyal to any brand that makes that product(s).
- 19.3%: I have never been loyal to brands for certain products.

More than one in 5 Americans has shifted their brand loyalty over the past 12 months. Did the pandemic give them an opportunity to branch out? Will this change as consumers re-adopt old habits?
